

Blue Star wins order worth Rs 253 crore from MMRCL

Air conditioning and commercial refrigeration major, Blue Star, won air conditioning and tunnel ventilation system order valued at Rs 253 crore from Mumbai Metro Rail Corporation Limited (MMRCL). As per the deal, the company will be taking care of the design, engineering, supply, installation and commissioning of the air conditioning, tunnel ventilation and environmental control system for nine underground stations and associated tunnels on Line 3 corridor of the Mumbai Metro between Mumbai Central and Bandra. This turnkey project will require approximately 8200TR of water cooled screw and magnetic bearing chillers, chilled water and condenser water pumps, air handling units, fan coil units, piping, ducting, insulation, tunnel ventilation fans, dampers, compressed air system, associated electrical work and a SCADA system, amongst others.