

MMRC HOLDS EVENT ON WOMEN LAWS

Mumbai: Mumbai Metro Rail Corporation (MMRC) organised a programme exclusively for its project affected women to create awareness among them about women-related laws, recently at Eklavya Adiwasi Sewa trust ground, Andheri. The programme was conducted by advocate Pooja Kute who spoke on women's rights and laws related to women, including domestic violence, harassment at workplace, anti-dowry law etc. She said that aggrieved women should lodge complaint and approach Court to seek justice rather than be stoic. The women also had a lot of their queries answered by the speaker in the Q&A session post the programme. Commenting on the matter, managing director, MMRC, Ashwini Bhide said, "This was indeed very valuable information, and the issues being discussed are of importance for the development of women. We aim to arrange more such sessions that would aid in educating and empowering women." Over 250 women from Sariputnagar, MIDC and Aarey Colony attended the programme.
